Normal vision (clear image)

Cataract vision (cloudy/hazy image)

THE MOST COMMON SYMPTOMS OF A CATARACT ARE:

- Clouded or blurry vision
- Sensitivity to light, both night-time glare and daylight
- Fading colors
- Difficulty reading
- Double vision (often goes away as cataracts worsen)
- Frequent changes in prescription of eyeglasses and contact lenses

The free screening includes a basic vision screening of your eyes to help determine if you have a cataract. Further testing, not covered in the free screening might be required.
